Positions:

Benefit: In this mechanism from Onda family, the presence of two actuators allows to split the movements of the footrest and the backrest, so that they can be moved separately. While operating the actuators, the user can choose between reclining the backrest or moving the footrest or both altogether. This feature results in endless choice options for the relax position. The visible parts can be refined with various finishes. ONDA two ways has been designed to create padded CLOSED BASE (low foot).
